There were no matters arising.

The Committee intimated, and the Society approved, the nomination of Professor Henk Jan de Jonge to become Deputy President-Elect, with a view to taking up office at the 2012 General Meeting in Leuven, Belgium.

The President noted that Professor Martinus C. de Boer would complete his first term as Secretary of the Society at the end of 2010. The Committee recommended that he be appointed for a second and final term. Members approved the appointment for a five-year term from 1st January 2011 to 31st December 2015.

BM2010/08 International Initiatives

The Assistant Secretary for International Initiatives, Prof. Bernard Lategan, had circulated a concise report covering the year to June 2010.

Two main issues were elaborated:

1. The work of the existing committees

Details of the work of the Eastern European Liaison Committee, the African Liaison Committee, and the Asian region representative were presented.

- a. Eastern European Liaison Committee (EELC)

- The fifth International East-West Symposium is to be held in Minsk (Belarus) during 2nd-9th September 2010, on 'Gospel Images of Jesus Christ in Church Tradition and in Biblical Scholarship'.
- A two day pre-conference symposium for Eastern European New Testament scholars preceded the Berlin 2010 General Meeting. Six speakers from Latvia, Serbia, Belarus, Romania and Hungary presented papers.
- In spring 2010 a translation into Russian of 'Paulus: Eine Biographie' by Eduard Lohse was published in the Bibliotheca Biblica Series (St. Andrews Institute Press, Moscow). As a second volume in the same series, the Russian translation of the conference volume from the first East-West symposium in Neamț (Romania) also appeared.

- b. African Liaison Committee (ALC)

- At its General Meeting in September 2009 at St Paul's University (Limuru, Kenya), it was decided that the African Liaison Committee would henceforth function as the Institute of Scripture Studies (ISS) with three units: New Testament Studies, Old Testament Studies and Bible Translation Studies. This broadens the scope of the ALC into an inclusive Biblical forum in order to become more context sensitive. The two main aims of the ISS are to foster critical biblical scholarship and to promote peaceful interactions.
- The ISS organized two general meetings: on 19th September 2009 at St Paul's University (Limuru, Kenya); and on 22nd May 2010 at the Nairobi Evangelical Graduate School of Theology of the Africa International University.
- Two publications resulted from the work of the ISS in 2010:
 1. Peter Mwema, The Relationship between Peter and Jesus in Mark's Gospel. An Exegetical-Theological Study. Doctoral Dissertation. Rome: Gregoriana Pontifical University; Nairobi: Catholic University of Eastern Africa, 2010.
 2. Jean-Claude Loba-Mkole, 'The New Testament and Intercultural Exegesis', in Paul Foster (ed.), New Testament Studies (SAGE Benchmark in Religious Studies). London: SAGE, 2010.
- The ISS launched a major research project for 2011, the results of which will be published in three volumes: Jean-Claude Loba-Mkole, Ernst R. Wendland & Aloo Mojola (eds), Biblical Foundations of Peace Building. New Testament, Old Testament and Translated Texts. Dodoma: Institute of Scripture Studies; Stellenbosch: Sun Press.

- In a further significant development, the New Testament Society of South Africa decided at its 2010 Annual Meeting to support the SNTS initiative to promote the scholarly study of the New Testament, especially in Africa.

c. Asian Liaison Committee

The first meeting of a core group of members from the wider Asia region was scheduled for Tuesday 27th July as a first step towards establishing an Asian Liaison Committee. The following members were invited to attend this meeting: Jey Kanagaraj, Bill Loader, David Sim, Eric Wong and James McLaren. Important goals were recognised to be: to broaden the committee with more members from Japan, Korea and other parts of the region; to raise the profile of the scholarly study of the New Testament in the region; and to attract young scholars from the region to the 2013 Perth General Meeting.

d. Latin America

It was noted that there are few members of the Society living in Latin America. It was reported that new attempts are being made through members with existing Latin-America ties to assist in establishing a Liaison Committee that will have its first meeting during the 2011 Annandale-on-Hudson General Meeting.

2. SNTS Electronic Library (EL)

Prof. Lategan presented details about the progress of the project to establish an electronic library resource.

- The aim of the EL is to provide resources to promising doctoral and post-doctoral New Testament students who do not have regular and easy access to physical libraries.
- Access to an existing electronic resource has been achieved through SUNTRA (the Stellenbosch University New Testament Research Fellowship). Research Associates of SUNTRA have access to electronic texts, journals and books of the University, which include inter alia the Thesaurus Linguae Graecae, the Thesaurus Linguae Latinae and some 65 journals in the field of biblical studies.
- SNTS members are urged to identify and propose promising doctoral students and post-doctoral scholars who would benefit from access to such electronic sources. Bona fide candidates could be accepted as research associates of SUNTRA who would then have access to these electronic resources.

3. Other Issues

Prof. Lategan emphasised the advantages of the recent EELC pre-General Meeting symposia, and identified the intention that each year a different Regional Liaison Committee might be encouraged to organise such an event; and that this might allow funds to be spent strategically in supporting attendance from different regions.

Prof. K-W. Niebuhr reported that, at the Berlin EELC Meeting, a circle of Friends of the Bibliothecae Biblicae was launched. SNTS members, as well as other interested persons or institutions, were invited to support the Biblical libraries in St. Petersburg and Sofia.

BM2010/09 Treasurer's Report

The Treasurer, Dr Helen Bond, commented upon the financial statements for the year ended 31st May 2010. These covered the three funds of the Society: the General Fund, the International Fund and the Library Fund. The points highlighted by the Treasurer included the following:

- High attendance and generous sponsorship at the General Meeting in Vienna 2009, together with increased income from subscriptions, contributed to a strong net surplus this year in the General Fund (nearly £15,000) and in the International Fund (over £8,000).
- Each year, the International Fund pays for 12 sponsored individuals to attend the General Meeting from under-represented areas. This year, 15 scholars had been supported in this category. The Treasurer reported that the Committee had decided that 4 of the 12 sponsorships in 2011 will be reserved for scholars from Latin America. It was also pointed out that only members can apply for this assistance before the deadline of 1st December.

When considering the overall financial position of the Society, the Committee trustees had agreed that:

- Sterling subscriptions (agreed in 2006) were set at £35, and other currency rates were set accordingly. At that time, sterling was a strong currency, but exchange rates have changed significantly and it was suggested that they may now be at a more typical rate. The Committee consequently proposed £40; £12; £8 for the range of sterling subscription rates.

For its part, the General Meeting of the Society approved the financial statements for the year ended 31st May 2010, together with the above proposal in regard to subscriptions.

The Treasurer thanked the regional treasurers and local organisers for their help.

BM2010/10 Any Other Business

There was no further business, and the First Business Meeting was then concluded.

20.30 A Reception was held in the Pergamon Museum, sponsored by Mohr Siebeck. Participants were warmly welcomed by Professor Christoph Marksches, the President of the University.

BM2010/12 Editors' Reports

Copies of the Editors' reports had been distributed to participants. In the absence of Dr Court, Prof. John Barclay spoke regarding both the Journal and Monograph Series.

1. New Testament Studies

a. Supply and Quality of Articles

Prof. Barclay reported that 110 articles had been submitted to the Journal over the past year, and that feedback on these was supplied in about 10 weeks. The queue for publication remains quite short (6 to 9 months). The Editor also reported that the Journal occasionally includes: response articles, article length book reviews, or a themed issue. Furthermore, it was highlighted as new policy, that submissions written other than in one of the 3 standard languages of the Journal, if suitable, might be translated, and then reviewed by a Board member in the usual way. CUP would be willing to pay for this translation.

b. Subscription Rates

The rates for Volume 57 (2011) are as follows (2010 figures in brackets):

Institutions (print & on-line)	£145 (135) / $266 (249)
Institutions (on-line only)	£132 (123) / $239 (223)
Institutions (print only)	£136 (127) / $244 (228)
ABTAPL	£95 (same since 2009)

c. Details of Circulation and Usage

A report had been received from Cambridge University Press giving details of on-line access to the Journal. All issues are now available electronically, and, on average, there are some 8,000 monthly views of abstracts, and more than 2,000 monthly views of fulltext articles. This showed a higher level of such use than for other CUP journals in theology and religion.

2. Monograph Series

In the absence of Dr Court, Prof. Barclay briefly highlighted some issues raised in the circulated report on the Monograph Series.

a. New Publications

Two monographs have been published since the report presented at the Vienna 2009 General Meeting:

The following title had been placed under contract since the last meeting:

150 Hägerland: Jesus and the Forgiveness of Sins: An Aspect of his Prophetic Mission

One new title on the Gospel of Thomas would be presented to the Press Syndicate in August.

It was noted that the aim is to produce 3-5 monographs each year, including some from established scholars.

3. New Members of the Editorial Board

It was noted that the Editorial Board serves both the Journal and the Monograph Series. Thanks were expressed to all those on the Board.

Invited Main Papers will be given by Profs Margaret Mitchell (English); Luc Devillers (French); Christof Landmesser (German); Francis Watson (English). Opportunities will again exist for members to offer short papers to be read in simultaneous sessions.

18 Short Papers will be scheduled, and any member wishing to offer such a paper is asked to send a proposal to the Secretary before 1 February 2011. Members may give only one paper (of any kind) per General Meeting.

2. Seminars

The Secretary drew attention to the following:

- Two seminars terminated in Berlin, and did not apply for continuation:
 - 'The Greco-Roman World of the New Testament: Language, Culture, Ideas' (co-chairs: S.E. Porter and P. Arzt-Grabner; advisory co-chair, L. Rydbeck)
 - 'New Challenges for New Testament Hermeneutics in the 21st Century' (co-chairs: B. McLean and O. Wischmeyer)
- Four proposals for new seminars to begin in Annandale-on-Hudson 2011 were approved:
 - 'Reconsidering Literarkritik of Pauline Letters and its Impacts on the Interpretation of 1 and 2 Corinthians and Philippians' (co-chairs: Profs E-M. Becker and R. Bieringer). 5 years.
 - 'Matthew in Context: an Exploration of Matthew in Relation to the Judaism and Christianity of its Time' (co-chairs: Profs M. Konradt, W. Kraus and W. Loader). 5 years.
 - 'Papyrology, Epigraphy and the New Testament' (co-chairs: Profs P. Arzt-Grabner and J.S. Kloppenborg). The Committee expressed concern that there may be some overlap with the 'Social History and the New Testament' seminar, but was satisfied that this could be avoided. 3 years.
 - 'Reading Paul's Letters in Context: Theological and Social-Scientific Approaches' (co-chairs: Dr William Campbell and Prof. Michael Bachmann). 3 years.

This means that there will be the maximum of 18 Seminars at the Annandale-on-Hudson 2011 General Meeting.

Seminar leaders were asked to send the Secretary by 1st February the names of those giving papers and the titles of their papers, so that these may be included in the general information about the General meeting which is sent out to all SNTS members in the February-March newsletter.
